RE: CORRIB ONSHORE PIPELINE EIS 2010

Dear Mr. Whelan,

I refer to the above mentioned application and specifically the submission of further information on 31st May 2010, subsequent to An Bord Pleanála's letter of 2nd November 2009 as issued to you on 30th June.

On 21st July 2010, it came to the attention of the applicant, that some data was omitted from Appendix J1 of Volume 2 of the EIS (as previously issued to you). In three instances, the data referred to and intended for inclusion in Appendix J1, is in fact within the EIS, but at a different section. In one instance the data referred to, was inadvertently omitted from the final copied versions of the EIS (both hard copies and digital versions). The relevant data is as follows:

Data intended to be included within Appendix J1
Habitat Sheets 1 - 3	This is separately located at Chapter 12 of the EIS
Designated Sites: Figure 4	This is separately located at the Preface to Section C of the EIS
Bird Figures 3.1 – 3.9	This is separately located at Chapter 12 and Appendix P of the EIS
Fauna Figures 2.0 – 2.14	This is not located elsewhere in the EIS

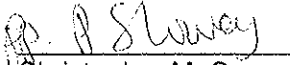

This inadvertent administrative oversight in the assembly of the published EIS is deeply regretted and we apologise for it.

We enclose for your benefit 1 no. hard copy and 1 no. electronic copy (CDs) of Appendix J1, wherein the inadvertently omitted figures have been incorporated.

We have also placed this omitted information on the website [\[www.corribgaspipelineabpapplication.ie\]](http://www.corribgaspipelineabpapplication.ie).

We apologise for any inconvenience caused by this inadvertent oversight from the EIS, which we moved to rectify immediately upon becoming aware of it.

Yours sincerely
